

SurgeMaster®, 4-Way Surge Sockets, 1m Cable - F5C204u1

A thunderous strike of lightning flickers across the night's sky. Your sensitive electronics cringe, as the storm looms ever closer, wondering if this will be their last day. Of course not, they're connected to a Belkin SurgeMaster®. They are protected! The SurgeMaster® keeps your home and office electronics protected from power surges. Features 4 sockets and a 1 metre power cable.

Today's coffee makers have more microchips than the first manned spacecraft. You won't want to be left unprotected when Mother Nature comes calling. Microwaves, coffee makers, bread makers, and even garage door openers need protection.
