Use any headset with your iPod Shuffle with Belkin's new Headphone Adaptor

- Belkin's Headphone Adaptor includes the control buttons you need to change tracks and adjust volume, while still using the headset of your choice
- You can play/pause, skip or go to the previous track, hear the song title, or move between playlists

(Rushden, UK) – 29th July, 2009 – With Belkin's new Headphone Adaptor for the iPod Shuffle you now have the freedom to use the headset of your choice with your iPod. If you would like to use a headset other than the ones provided with the iPod shuffle, this adaptor is ideal for controlling your music, since there are no controls on the iPod Shuffle itself. Belkin's new Headphone Adaptor is equipped with controls that allow you to adjust volume, skip tracks, toggle between playlists and hear the song title and the controls conveniently work the same way as those on the earbuds that are included with the iPod Shuffle.

Headphone Adaptor for iPod Shuffle (F8Z452ea) - £14.99/€17.99
